The court has carefully considered Defendant's filings, notwithstanding the untimeliness of the objection, and upon de novo review of the Recommendation, the court is convinced that the Recommendation is correct and in accordance with law. The court therefore adopts the Recommendation as its Order, and for the reasons stated there, Defendant's Claim of Exemption and his request for hearing are DENIED.

amount. See Order, docket no. 115. That same order notified Defendant that the fine was immediately payable should he fail in either particular. Defendant did so fail and a Writ of Execution was issued which resulted in the seizure of the vehicle at issue. There is no question that the application for the writ was properly served, rather Defendant complains that he, in propria persona, did not receive a copy of the application. So far as the record discloses, Defendant is represented by court-appointed counsel. Defendant's motion to stay is DENIED.
